PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

★ Gum Shields

Gum shield clear, single

Protection of teeth and jaw must not be missed in boxing! This mouth- and teeth protection for the upper teeth row is elastic enough in order to absorb strokes and rigid enough in order to divert the occurring energy and spread it onto an area as large as possible. The communication is not affected in any way by wearing the gum shield.

Gum shield clear, double

The classic Tooth protection for the lower and upper teeth row! The deflection area is even bigger and the mouth-interior is almost completely fixed.

Gum Shield MG 3 one size

The gum shield MG 3 for tournaments consists of EVA material (Ethylene-Vinyl-Acetate) and is free from harmful substances such as silicone or Latex. The ideal properties of the material in terms of formability, temperature and hardness degree are optimally utilized in training and also in tournament. The 3-layer protection with shock absorbing spiral provides maximum protection from stroke damages.

Gum shield pouring

The protection of teeth and jaw is very important in boxing. The gum shield pouring adapts itself perfectly to your individual tooth placement and is therefore suitable for all age levels. Firstly you stir a compound according to instructions, which will be filled in the gum shield. Then you press the gum shield to your upper teeth row until you have the feeling of a good fit. The compound herewith adapts perfectly to the teeth and provides an optimal protection during the training. Once the gum shield is poured it is naturally reusable.
